NEW FILM STUDY SERIES ANNOUNCED

With "The House on 92nd Street," a Nazi spy melodrama concerning the development of the "Manhattan Project" on the atomic bomb, a new series of films will be presented.

This film to be shown on November 3 will be followed by:

The Overlanders	November 17
Miracle on 34th Street	December 1
Bambi and Seal Island	December 15
(Curtain time 7:30 p.m.)
Another Part of the Forest	January 5
The Southerner	January 19

Series tickets can be purchased at the Recreation Office or at the Lecture Hall before the November 3rd showing of "The House on 92nd Street." Series tickets are $1.75 which is a saving of $1.25 over the price of six individual admissions.

Come and see "The House on 92nd Street," Monday, November 3 at 8:30 P.M. in the Lecture Hall.

THEATRE GROUP

Production - Management Meeting October 29

The next Theatre Group meeting, scheduled for 8:00 P.M. on Wednesday, October 29 at the Recreation Bldg., York Lane, will settle some local labor problems; namely, who's going to work on what part of the December production of the three one-acters. Sven Hasselriis, who's worked on many sets for the Sayville Musical Workshop, as well as our Spring play last year, will talk about set building and discuss questions.
